

Lexus Announces Pricing for 2013 GX 460 Luxury Utility Vehicle

June 22, 2012

TORRANCE, Calif. (June 22, 2012) – Lexus today announced Manufacturer’s Suggested Retail Prices (MSRP) on the 2013 GX 460 Luxury Utility Vehicle. The second-generation GX is offered in two grades, base, which will carry an MSRP of $53,445, and Premium which will be priced at $58,240. The MSRP does not include a delivery, processing and handling fee of $875. The new Lexus vehicles will arrive at dealerships in July.

For 2013 the luxurious Lexus GX 460 luxury utility vehicle carries over unchanged with its quiet cabin and a long list of standard features and options that make it a versatile choice for city and off-road driving. With its seven-passenger, three-row configuration and body-on frame construction, the GX 460 combines “right sized” mid-size packaging with family-friendly comfort and premium craftsmanship. The 4.6-liter V8 engine produces 301 horsepower at 5,500 rpm and 329 lb.-ft. of peak torque at 3,500 rpm and helps the GX tow up to 6,500 lbs.
