Aaron Telitz

May 31, 2022

Aaron Telitz is in his third full-time season with Vasser Sullivan and is co-driving the No. 12 Lexus RC F GT3 in the GTD class with teammate Frankie Montecalvo. The 30-year-old Wisconsin native has won four races and earned 11 podium finishes and six pole positions with Vasser Sullivan. Telitz and Jack Hawksworth teamed up in 2020 to win the IMSA GTD Sprint Cup Championship with three wins and five podium finishes. Telitz won his first career IMSA pole position at his home track, Road America, in 2020 and followed that up with two additional GTD pole positions that season. In 2019, Telitz earned a runner-up podium result in the Rolex 24 at Daytona, co-driving the No. 12 RC F GT3 in his first IMSA start. The Wisconsin native earned three wins, 11 podium finishes and three pole positions previously competing in the Indy Lights Series from 2017 to 2019. Prior to racing in Indy Lights, Telitz won the Pro Mazda Championship title in 2016. He captured the Mazdaspeed/Skip Barber Racing School Scholarship Shootout in 2013 and was the 2014 Team USA Scholarship recipient. Telitz began racing go-karts at the age of seven and has won numerous karting championships as well.
