May 31, 2022

Townsend Bell currently serves as a Brand Ambassador for the Lexus brand. After two full-time seasons driving the Lexus RC F GT3 (2019 and 2020), Bell has served as a Vasser Sullivan endurance racer for the season-opening Rolex 24 in 2021 and 2022. The California native earned one win and five podium finishes teaming up with Frankie Montecalvo for Vasser Sullivan in the Lexus in 2019 and 2020. The California native won the 2015 IMSA GTD championship and claimed the GTD class victory in the 2014 Rolex 24 at Daytona. He was also victorious in the Twelve Hours of Sebring while competing in the American Le Mans Series in 2012. Bell has experience in the IndyCar Series, including 10 starts in the famed Indianapolis 500 with his best finish of fourth-place coming in 2009. In two seasons competing in the Indy Lights Series (2000 and 2001), Bell earned eight wins and 14 podium positions in 24 starts including the 2001 series championship. He is a member of the broadcast team for NBC Sports during both IndyCar and IMSA races.
